

Third-party member's consent

HSC Pension Service requires sight of a scheme member's written authority when dealing with enquiries from a third-party.

The written authority affirms that the scheme member has provided their permission for HSC Pension Service to disclose information to a nominated third party about their pensionable rights.

HSC Pension Service permits written authority to remain valid for 3 years from the date authority was received. Consent can be withdrawn by confirmation of revocation in writing.