

INTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE (DRP1)

Is this in respect of an ill health appeal? Yes No

In order to initiate the Internal Dispute Resolution process, it is a requirement of the Occupational Pension Schemes (Internal Disputes Resolution Procedures) Regulations 1996 that you, or your representative, provide specific information; the details for which are set out in this application form.

Failure to provide any of the information we have asked for will result in your application being delayed. We do appreciate that some of the information being requested will already be known to us, however it is a requirement of the above legislation that all such details are provided.

The Disputes Officer is required to provide you with their decision within 2 months of receiving your completed application. If they are unable to do so they will write to you to let you know the reasons why and provide you with a date when you will receive their full response. If you have not already done so, please read the guidance contained in the leaflet Complaints and Disputes. This can be downloaded from the HSC Pension Service website.

Ill Health Benefit Appeals

The appeal process for ill health pensions is also dealt with under the Internal Disputes Resolution (IDR) Procedures. An applicant can appeal a decision to reject an application or a decision to award a Tier 1 pension.

Provision of additional medical evidence is not compulsory, however, members will be advised that a decision not to award an ill health pension, or award a Tier 1 pension, is unlikely to be overturned unless they provide additional medical evidence. In addition, any medical evidence must relate to the same condition in respect of which the initial application was made and must support incapacity at date of application.

In cases where a member's health has deteriorated since the initial application, it may be appropriate for a new application to be made.

I have attached the following documentation (if applicable):

Additional medical evidence not previously been seen by HSC Pension Service medical advisors
